

THE PAST WEEK has been a gay one in the social world, and the coming holiday festivities promise to be brighter than they have ever been before. Many large and elaborate events are planned for the few days around Christmas, perhaps the most important being the first ball given by the Assembly club, which is to take place on the evening of the 23d at Christensen's hall.

All the young people who are within easy distance of home are to be here for the holidays from college or from boarding school, and there will be plenty of merriment in the younger set. If the weather man grows good-hearted enough, there will be something doing in the way of sleigh rides and skating parties for them, and for the older ones there are the merry joys of the mistletoe season.

No notable marriages are scheduled for the time, but it is whispered that there are to be some interesting announcements made over some of the Christmas dinners.

Coming Events.

One of the events of the coming week which will be looked forward to with interest is the musical to be given Wednesday evening at the Commercial club to the families of the members and their friends. The affair will be under the direction of Mr. McClellan, the chairman of the music committee, and will be the first of a series planned for the winter.

One of the elaborate affairs of the week will be the reception and dancing party to be given Friday evening by Captain and Mrs. Pardee of Fort Douglas in honor of their guest, Miss Dickerman of Colorado Springs. The affair will be given in the post hall, and supper will be served in the Officers' club.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Swift announce the engagement of their daughter, Virginia Marie, to Mr. Charles Caulfield Daley of Denver. The marriage will take place on the 27th of the month.

Mrs. Charles S. Burton, Mrs. H. G. Whitney, Mrs. Della D. Hills and Mrs. Ida Snow will give a character ball in the Eighteenth ward hall Thursday evening.

Mrs. C. A. Walker has cards out for a large and elaborate luncheon to be given Thursday at the Commercial club in honor of Mrs. G. Ray Walker.

Miss Jane Mackintosh will give a vocal recital for her pupils next Friday afternoon at her studio.

The week's social life opens with the luncheon tomorrow evening at Mrs. Perry S. Heath at the Knutsford.

Mrs. H. W. Donohoe has invitations out for a luncheon to be given next Tuesday.

Mrs. J. H. Young will entertain again at cards next Tuesday afternoon.

Reception and Dancing Party.

One of the most beautifully appointed parties of the season was that given last Monday evening at the Ladies' Literary club in honor of Mrs. Ardelle Cummings of California.

The hall was decorated most artistically for the occasion, and rugs, divans and cosy corners lent a homelike air to the scene. Handsome palms and long sprays of dark green ivy formed an effective background, and rich Oriental draperies made the room gorgeous. On the dais at the end of the hall sat the orchestra dispensing sweet dance music, and in the reception room the guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Tibbets, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Knowlton, Mr. and Mrs. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Ellerbeck and Mr. and Mrs. Godbe.

On the lower floor tables for cards were arranged in the outer room, and here under a canopy of flags a dainty punch table was arranged and presided over by Mrs. Walter Ellerbeck and the Misses Genevieve Knowlton and Ellen Tibbets. In the dining room the decorations were entirely in pink and green, and the table presented a beautiful picture with its cut glass and handsome silver. From the chandeliers above ropes of smilax and pink ribbons were stretched to the four corners and in the center a tall vase of crystal held pink carnations. Here Mrs. N. W. Clayton and Mrs. Stanley Clawson served tea and coffee, assisted by Mrs. Gunter and Mrs. John Grovesbeck, Jr. Over 200 invitations had been issued, and a large number of friends enjoyed the delightful evening.

Two Beautiful Luncheons.

Two of the most beautifully appointed affairs of the past week were the luncheons given Thursday and Friday by Mrs. H. E. Cary at her home on East Brigham. The decorations of the house were most artistic, and reflected great credit as the work of Mrs. Huguin of the Salt Lake Floral company. Throughout the rooms most elaborate decorations of American Beauties were used, and in the hall behind a screen of palms and ferns an orchestra furnished delightful music. In the dining room the color was pink, the table centerpiece being of pink, the table centerpieces being of pink, the table centerpieces being of pink, the table centerpieces being of pink.

flowers was used, and to the four corners of the room were stretched ropes of smilax from the chandeliers. The same delicate roses were used as favors with the place cards. Covers were laid for two hundred guests, those present being Mrs. Cary, mother of Mr. Cary; Mrs. Royle, Mrs. Dart, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Bickford, Mrs. Dinehy, Mrs. Stewart of California, Miss Dickinson and Miss Swift. Prizes in the game were awarded to Mrs. Raymond, Miss Pointer and Mrs. Farrell.

Cards and Music.

Mrs. A. D. Melvin, who formed a charming addition to the society during the summer, entertained most delightfully last Wednesday at cards and music. After a few games of sixty-three, a beautifully arranged programme was rendered, Mrs. Melvin being assisted by Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. J. Reed, Mrs. Putnam, Mrs. Richardson and Miss Swift. Prizes in the game were awarded to Mrs. Raymond, Miss Pointer and Mrs. Farrell.

At Luncheon.

Mrs. Henry W. Lawrence gave a beautiful luncheon on Thursday at which a number of her friends were entertained. The long table at which the guests were seated was very prettily decorated in the reds and greens of the season. A centerpiece was formed of red carnations, and at either end were candelabra shaded in red. Asparagus, pinellas and smilax were scattered over the cloth, and place cards of deep red added to the color scheme. Covers were laid for sixteen.

At Dinner.

Mr. Samuel Newhouse entertained at a very delightful dinner at the Commercial club last evening. The long table at which the guests were seated was most artistically decorated with American Beauties and smilax. Covers were laid for ten guests, those present being Governor and Mrs. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker of Everett, Wash., Mr. Clement, Miss Judge and Mr. Goodwin.

At Dinner.

Colonel and Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes entertained Friday evening at a very beautifully appointed dinner at the mella Palace. The table decorations were pink and green, the centerpiece being a tall vase of the pink and green. Handsome candelabra shaded in pale green lighted the table, and ribbons of the two shades added to the effect. At each place was a dainty calendar for the coming year used as a place card. Covers were laid for eight.

SOCIAL BRIEFS.

At Cards.

Mrs. Joseph H. Young gave a very beautifully appointed card party Tuesday afternoon at her home on G street. The guests numbered nearly fifty, and enjoyed the game of sixty-three. The home was prettily decorated in red and green, and the tables and score cards were of the same colors. Prizes were won by Mrs. George L. Nye, Miss Katherine Lowe and Miss Harkness.

At Cards.

A very delightful card party of the past week was that given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Bauer at their home on East Brigham street. The house was very prettily decorated, a wealth of flowers of all kinds being used throughout the rooms. The prevailing color seen was red, and the warm tones harmonized perfectly with the furnishings. The counters and white paper done in pyrography. After the games prizes were awarded to Mrs. Miner, Mrs. Wood, Mr. Schuler and Mr. Henderson. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Hagar, Mr. and Mrs. George Dorn, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wightman, Mrs. Winn, Mrs. Miner, Mrs. Clement, Mrs. Moore, the Misses Mary Wightman, May Carver, Nellie Chandler, Rennie Peterson, and Messrs. Arthur Thomas, Briggs Cannon, Weaver Wheeler, Myers and Schuler.

Card Parties.

Two very pleasant card parties on Monday and Tuesday of the past week were given by Mrs. Joseph Oberdorfer in honor of Mrs. Joseph Siegel of St. Louis. The pretty home was decorated most attractively, the hall and dining room being in shades of green and red. The dining room was decorated with sprays of holly done in water colors, and were very beautiful. On Monday the prizes were won by Mrs. Southwell, Mrs. James Jennings, Mrs. Harry Joseph, on Tuesday they fell to Mrs. C. O. Whittemore, Mrs. Ed Silberstein and Mrs. L. G. Reynolds.

Christmas Card Party.

Mrs. John Cowan entertained at a pleasant afternoon card party last Wednesday. The home was decorated in red and green and the same colors were carried out in the counters. Games were talked by means of small Christmas favors dropped in a tiny red stocking, and even the refreshments were all of the holiday order. Euchre was the game played, and the prizes were won by Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Weir, Mrs. Delano and Mrs. Lindsay.

Luncheon and Kensington.

Mrs. J. D. Spencer was the hostess at a very delightful luncheon and Kensington Tuesday, at which her sisters, Mrs. Hagen and Mrs. Easton were the guests. The house was beautifully decorated with white and yellow, the flowers used being tall, showy chrysanthemums. Counters and score cards were done in the same shades. At the conclusion of the game, prizes were awarded to Miss Snell and Mrs. Lawrence Kimball.

Euchre Party.

A very delightful event of the week was the euchre party given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. W. I. and Miss Snyder. About thirty-five guests were entertained, enjoying the afternoon thoroughly. The house was beautifully decorated with white and yellow, the flowers used being tall, showy chrysanthemums. Counters and score cards were done in the same shades. At the conclusion of the game, prizes were awarded to Miss Snell and Mrs. Lawrence Kimball.

A Dainty Luncheon.

A very beautiful luncheon was that given yesterday by Mrs. Charles E. Walker at her home. The color scheme was pink and was admirably carried out in carnations and all the table accessories. A centerpiece of the flowers arose between two handsome candelabra. Shades of the same hue as the flowers were used, and pink cards added to the color effect. Place cards were done in the pink also and covers were laid for twelve guests.

Pink Dinner.

Dr. and Mrs. Ewing gave a delightful dinner last Monday evening, at which ten guests were entertained. Rose pink was the color carried out in the decorations, the flowers being the Lawson carnations, and shades and candles of the same tint being used. Place cards were dainty water color pictures showing carnations and the same hue. The guests were Colonel and Mrs. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. Filer and Mr. and Mrs. Pearl.
